PREFACE

In compiling this book of 261 songs, the editor introduces

TWENTY-TWO NEW SONGS.

And includes many other standard hymns and gospel songs from the best copyrights of the foremost song publishers. A special effort has been made to use songs which most all love to sing and which are adapted for general purposes.

Special attention is called to the complete index arranged by title and by the wording of the first line; also to the topical index of songs (abbreviated). Twenty-five Bible readings on vital themes are also included.

SPECIAL ORCHESTRATION FEATURES

In addition to the regular orchestration for fifteen instruments, we have added a supplement of special selections, which includes Sacred Medley-overtures, Marches and Offertories sufficient to supply the needs of any church-school orchestra for special numbers.

The added selections are bound in each book. Piano part for special selections furnished in separate book.

We acknowledge with grateful appreciation the helpful suggestions received from singing evangelists and others, and it is our earnest desire that the songs in this book will gladden and quicken the hearts of men to a fuller realization of Christ and His kingdom, and may many souls be won to Him. The King's Praise

All Hail the Power of Jesus Name,

Edward Perronet.

Oliver Holden.

1. All hail the pow'r of Je-sus' name, Let an-gels pros-trate fall;
2. Crown Him, ye morn-ing star of light, Who fixed this earth-ly ball;
3. Sin - ners, whose love can ne'er for-get The worm-wood and the gall,
4. Let ev-'ry kin-dred, ev-'ry tribe On this ter-res-trial ball,
5. O that with yon-der sa-cred throng We at His feet may fall;

Bring forth the roy-al di-a-dem, And crown Him Lord of all;
Now hail the strength of Israel's might, And crown Him Lord of all;
Go, spread your tro-phies at His feet, And crown Him Lord of all;
To Him all maj-es-ty as-cribe, And crown Him Lord of all;
We'll join the ev-er-last-ing song, And crown Him Lord of all;

Bring forth the roy-al di-a-dem, And crown Him Lord of all.
Now hail the strength of Israel's might, And crown Him Lord of all.
Go, spread your tro-phies at His feet, And crown Him Lord of all.
To Him all maj-es-ty as-cribe, And crown Him Lord of all.
We'll join the ev-er-last-ing song, And crown Him Lord of all.

CHORUS

But we be-lieve Thy footsteps trod Its streets and plains, Thou Son of God;
 But we be-lieve the deed was done, That shook the earth and veiled the sun;
 But we be-lieve that an-gels said, "Why seek the liv - ing with the dead?"
 But we be-lieve that hu-man eyes Be - held that jour-ney to the skies;

 But we be-lieve that an-gels said, "Why seek the liv - ing with the dead?"
 But we be-lieve that hu-man eyes Be-held that jour-ney to the skies.

The first system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is written on a single staff. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of a series of eighth notes, starting on a G4, moving up stepwise to a D5, and then descending. The system ends with a double bar line.

1. In lov-ing-kind-ness Je-sus came My soul in mer-cy to re-claim,
2. He called me long be-fore I heard, Be-fore my sin-ful heart was stirred,
3. His brow was pierced with many a thorn, His hands by cru-el nails were torn,
4. Now on a high-er plane I dwell, And with my soul I know 'tis well;

And from the depths of sin and shame Thro' grace He lift-ed me.
 But when I took Him at His word, For-giv'n He lift-ed me.
 When from my guilt and grief, for-lorn, In love He lift-ed me.
 Yet how or why, I can-not tell, He should have lift-ed me.

He lift-ed me.

CHORUS.

From sink-ing sand He lift-ed me, With ten-der hand He lift-ed me,

 Where our na-tures are made sweet-er As we teach the Gold-en Rule;
 Where we may up-hold her standards And from du-ty nev-er swerve;

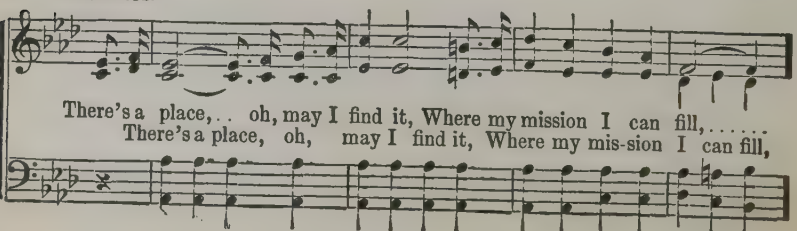

There are need-y hearts now wait-ing For the help which we can give,
 There's a call for loy-al serv-ice, Where we all may work and pray;
 There are bur-dens to be lift-ed, There are hearts in pain and grief,

Let us guide them safe-ly on-ward, Let us show them how to live,
 Let us then be up and do-ing, Teaching men the Sav-ior's way.
 Let us help the heav-y la-den Bringing com-fort and re-lief.

On Christ, the sol-id rock, I stand; All oth-er ground is sink-ing sand, All oth-er ground is sink-ing sand.

- 3 His oath, His covenant, His blood
 Support me in the whelming flood;
 When all around my soul gives way,
 He then is all my hope and stay.

 Oh, may I then in Him be found;
 Dressed in His righteousness alone,
 Faultless to stand before the throne.

 At Jesus' pierced feet,
 With joy I'll cast my golden crown,
 And His dear name repeat.
 4 Oh, precious cross! oh, glorious crown,
 Oh, resurrection day!
 Ye angels from the stars come down
 And bear my soul away.

The Son of God Goes Forth For Peace

Words copyright, 1923, Oak Park, Illinois, Pilgrim Church

Ernest Bourner Allen

H. S. Cutler

1. The Son of God goes forth for peace, Our Fa-ther's love to show;
2. The Son of God goes forth for peace, That men like brothers live,
3. The Son of God goes forth for peace, Nor lands nor pow'r to gain;
4. Now let the world to Peace be won, And ev-'ry ha-tred slain;
5. We send our love to ev-'ry land, True neighbors would we be;

From war and woe He brings re-lease, O who with Him will go?
 And all de-sire the oth-er's good, And oth-er's sins for-give;
 He seeks to serve, to love, to lift, Who fol-lows in His train?
 Let force and greed be o-ver-come And love su-preme re-main!
 And pray God's peace to reign in them, Where'er their home-land be!

He strikes the fet-ters from the slave, Man's mind and heart makes free;
 He turns our spears to prun-ing hooks, Our swords to plough-shares warm,
 A glo-rious band, in ev-'ry age, In spite of scorn and pain,
 Let jus-tice rule in all the earth, And mer-cy while we live,
 O God, to us may grace be giv'n, Who bear the dear Christ's name,

And sends His mes-sen-gers to save, O'er ev-'ry land and sea!
 And war no more its death-blast brings, Nor men their broth-ers harm.
 True sons of God, His peace have made, Who fol-lows in their train?
 Lest we for-giv-en much-for-get Our broth-er to for-give!
 To live at peace with ev-'ry man, And thus our Christ ac-claim.

BIBLE READINGS ON VITAL THEMES

The Bible text used in these readings is taken from the American Standard Edition of the Revised Bible, copyright, 1901, by Thomas Nelson & Sons, and is used by permission.

262 Love

1. If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

2. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. (1 Cor. 13:1, 2.)

3. There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love, because he first loved us.

4. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, cannot love God whom he hath not seen.

5. And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also. (1 John 4:18-21.)

6. If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive. (John 14:15-17.)

7. Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begath loveth him also that is begotten of him.

8. Hereby we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and do his commandments.

9. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

10. For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith.

11. And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? (1 John 5:1-5.)

263 Prayer

1. Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working. (Jas. 5:16-18.)

2. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. (Matt. 21:22.)

3. In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in honor preferring one another; in diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing steadfastly in prayer. (Rom. 12:10-12.)

4. And he went forward a little, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass away from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.

5. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

6. Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

7. Again a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this cannot pass away, except I drink it, thy will be done. (Matt. 26: 39-43.)

8. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thine inner chamber, and having shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret, and thy Father who seeth in secret shall recompense thee. (Matt. 6: 6.)

9. Therefore I say unto you, All things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

10. And whosoever ye stand praying forgive, if ye have aught against any one; that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. (Mark 11: 24, 25.)

264

Personal Work

1. He that is wise winneth souls. Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth. (Prov. 11: 30, 31.)

2. My brethren, if any among you err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins. (Jas. 5: 19, 20.)

3. And he sent forth his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

4. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and blind and lame.

5. And the servant said, Lord, what thou didst command is done, and yet there is room.

6. And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and constrain them to come in, that my house may be filled. (Luke 14: 17-23.)

7. What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. (Phil. 1: 18.)

8. We are ambassadors therefore on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beseech you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconciled to God. (2 Cor. 5: 20.)

9. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And he that heareth, let him say, Come. And he that is athirst, let him come: he that will, let him take the water of life freely. (Rev. 22: 17.)

Personal Work

1. So thou, son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

2. When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die, and thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at thy hand.

3. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turn not from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but thou hast delivered thy soul. (Ezek. 33: 7-9.)

4. Wherefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-pleasing unto him.

5. For we must all be made manifest before the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

6. Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your consciences. (2 Cor. 5: 9-11.)

7. And he entered into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the kingdom of God. (Acts 19: 8.)

8. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit; so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.

9. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything.

10. For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivereth us from the wrath to come. (1 Thess. 1: 6-10.)

11. One of the two that heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

12. He findeth first his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messiah (which is being interpreted, Christ).

13. He brought him unto Jesus (John 1: 40-42.)

14. For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? (1 Cor. 7: 16.)

Occasions of Stumbling

1. But whoso shall cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it is profitable for him that a great mill-stone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depth of the sea.

2. Woe unto the world because of occasions of stumbling! for it must needs be that the occasions come; but woe to that man through whom the occasion cometh!

3. And if thy hand or thy foot causeth thee to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life maimed or halt, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire.

4. And if thine eye causeth thee to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is good for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the hell of fire. (Matt. 18: 6-9.)

5. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.

6. I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

7. For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer in love. Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died.

8. Let not then your good be evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

9. For he that herein serveth Christ is well-pleasing to God, and approved of men.

10. So then let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another.

11. Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. All things indeed are clean; howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth with offense.

12. It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth.

13. The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that judgeth not himself in that which he approveth.

14. But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

15. Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

16. Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, unto edifying. For Christ also pleased not himself. (Rom. 14: 13-15: 3.)

17. But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the weak. (1 Cor. 8: 9.)

18. Through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin against Christ.

19. Wherefore, if meat cause thine brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble. (1 Cor. 8: 11-13.)

The Church

1. Now when Jesus came into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that the Son of man is?

2. And they said, Some say John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

3. He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am?

4. And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

5. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven.

6. And I also say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. (Matt. 16: 13-18.)

7. So then ye are no more strangers and sojourners, but ye are fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, being built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief corner stone;

8. In whom each several building, fitly framed together, groweth into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for a habitation of God in the Spirit. (Eph. 2: 19-22.)

9. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers. (Acts 2: 42.)

10. Let us draw near with a true heart in fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience: and having our body washed with pure water.

11. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he is faithful that promised. And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works;

12. Not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh. (Heb. 10: 22-25.)

13. Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it; that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word,

14. That he might present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. (Eph. 5: 25-27.)

15. Now ye are the body of Christ, and severally members thereof. (1 Cor. 12: 27.)

16. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the pre-eminence. (Col. 1: 18.)

268

The Divine Name

1. The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. (Acts 11: 26.)

2. And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian.

3. And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am except these bonds. (Acts 26: 28, 29.)

4. But if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this name. (1 Pet. 4: 16.)

5. But when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. (Acts 8: 12.)

6. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth,

7. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Phil. 2:9-11.)

8. And in none other is there salvation; for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved. (Acts 4:12.)

9. And whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. (Col. 3:17.)

10. And I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are. (John 17:11.)

11. Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word;

12. That they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that thou didst send me. (John 17:20, 21.)

13. Not unto us, O Jehovah, not unto us,

But unto thy name give glory,
For thy lovingkindness, and for thy truth's sake. (Ps. 115:1.)

Faith

1. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life.

2. For God sent not the Son into the world to judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him.

3. He that believeth on him is not judged: he that believeth not hath been judged already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. (John 3:16-18.)

4. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation.

5. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. (Mark 16:15, 16.)

6. What must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.

7. And they spake the word of the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house.

8. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately.

9. And he brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, having believed in God. (Acts 16:30-34.)

10. And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. (Acts 18:8.)

11. And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

12. Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so.

13. Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. (Acts 17:10-12.)

14. And without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. (Heb. 11:6.)

15. Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

16. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard?

17. So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ. (Rom. 10: 13, 14, 17.)

270

Repentance

1. And he said unto them, Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise again from the dead the third day;

2. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name unto all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. (Luke 24: 46, 47.)

3. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?

4. And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2: 37, 38.)

5. The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent, inasmuch as he hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world. (Acts 17: 30, 31.)

6. Except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish. (Luke 13: 3.)

7. Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not. (Matt. 11: 20.)

8. But I say unto you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee. (Matt. 11: 24.)

9. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godliness,

12. Looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God. (2 Pet. 3: 9-12.)

13 But there is nothing covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

14. Wherefore whatsoever ye have said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. (Luke 12: 2, 3.)

15. I say unto you, that even so there shall be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine righteous persons, who need no repentance. (Luke 15: 7.)

271

Confession

1. And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

2. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God abideth in him, and he in God. (1 John 4: 14, 15.)

3. Every one therefore who shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven.

4. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven. (Matt. 10: 32, 33.)

5. He saith unto them, But who say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

6. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven.

7. And I also say unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. (Matt. 16:15-18.)

8. The Jews had agreed already that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. (John 9:22.)

9. Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the glory that is of men more than the glory that is of God. (John 12:42, 43.)

10. The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach.

11. Because if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

12. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. (Rom. 10:8-10.)

13. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven and things on earth and things under the earth;

14. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. (Phil. 2:9-11.)

15. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, to me every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess to God.

16. So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God. (Rom. 14:11, 12.)

2. I indeed baptize you in water unto repentance; but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear; he shall baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire;

3. Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor; and he will gather his wheat into the garner, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.

4. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John would have hindered him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

5. But Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

6. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway from the water; and lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon him;

7. And lo, a voice out of the heavens, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. (Matt. 3:10-17.)

8. And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in the Jordan.

9. And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon him:

10. And a voice came out of the heavens, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am well pleased. (Mark 1:9-11.)

11. After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them and baptized.

12. And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came and were baptized. (John 3:22, 23.)

13. When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John (although Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples), he left Judæa. (John 4:1-3.)

Baptism Before the Cross

1. And even now the axe lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down and cast into the fire.

14. Then went out unto him Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about the Jordan; and they were baptized of him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. (Matt. 3:5, 6.)

273

Baptism After the Cross

1. And Jesus came to them and spake unto them, saying, All authority hath been given unto me in heaven and on earth.

2. Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit:

3. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. (Matt. 28:18-20.)

4. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that disbelieveth shall be condemned. (Mark 16:16.)

5. And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:38.)

6. They then that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls. (Acts 2:41.)

7. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

8. And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days. (Acts 10:47, 48.)

9. And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached unto him Jesus.

10. And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

11. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

12. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. (Acts 8:35-39.)

13. Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized unto his death?

14. We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.

15. For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection. (Rom. 6:3-5.)

16. Having been buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. (Col. 2:12.)

17. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name. (Acts 22:16.)

274

Obedience

1. Having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the author of eternal salvation. (Heb. 5:9.)

2. Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him.

3. For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye are obedient in all things. (2 Cor. 2:8, 9.)

4. But Peter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men. (Acts 5:29.)

5. Ye were running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? (Gal. 5:7.)

6. What then? shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? God forbid.

7. Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as servants unto obedience, his servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

8. But thanks be to God, that, whereas ye were servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto ye were delivered;

9. And being made free from sin, ye became servants of righteousness (Rom. 6:15-18.)

10. Rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

11. Who shall suffer punishment, even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might. (2 Thess. 1:8, 9.)

12. But unto them that are factious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall be wrath and indignation, tribulation and anguish. (Rom. 2:8.)

13. Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command you. (John 15:13, 14.)

14. And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

15. Every one that cometh unto me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like.

16. He is like a man building a house, who digged and went deep, and laid a foundation upon the rock: and when a flood arose, the stream brake against that house, and could not shake it: because it had been well builded.

17. But he that heareth and doeth not, is like a man that built a house upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream brake, and straightway it fell in; and the ruin of that house was great. (Luke 6:46-49.)

275

The Lord's Supper

1. And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

2. And the cup in like manner after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, even that which is poured out for you.

3. But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table. (Luke 22:19-21.)

4. For I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was betrayed took bread;

5. And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which is for you: this do in remembrance of me.

6. In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

7. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death till he come.

8. Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

9. But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.

10. For he that eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he discern not the body. (1 Cor. 11:23-29.)

11. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers. (Acts 2:42.)

12. And upon the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow. (Acts 20:7.)

276

The Holy Spirit

1. But the Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you. (John 14:26.)

2. I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I go, I will send him unto you.

3. And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

4. Of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more; of judgment, because the prince of this world hath been judged. (John 16:7-11.)

5. And behold, I send forth the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city, until ye be clothed with power from on high. (Luke 24:49.)

6. And when the day of Pentecost was now come, they were all together in one place.

7. And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

8. And there appeared unto them tongues parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them.

9. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (Acts 2:1-4.)

10. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spake forth unto them. (Acts 2:14.)

11. This Jesus did God raise up, whereof we all are witnesses.

12. Being therefore by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath poured forth this, which ye see and hear. (Acts 2:32, 33.)

13. Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified.

14. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?

15. And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:36-38.)

16. They then that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls. (Acts 2:41.)

17. If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments.

18. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you for ever, even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive. (John 14:15-17.)

19. And we are witnesses of these things; and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him. (Acts 5:32.)

20. Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except one be born of water and the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdom of God. (John 3:5.)

277

Conversion of the Samaritans

(Acts 8:4-25.)

4. They therefore that were scattered abroad went about preaching the word.

5. And Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ.

6. And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did.

7, 8. For from many of those that had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice; and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed. And there was much joy in that city.

9. But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who beforetime in the city used sorcery, and amazed the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10. To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying,

This man is that power of God which is called Great.

11. And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.

12. But when they believed Philip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13. And Simon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Philip; and beholding signs and great miracles wrought, he was amazed.

14. Now when the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15. Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit:

16. For as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

17. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18. Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.

20. But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God with money.

21. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right before God.

22, 23. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity.

24. And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25. They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

Conversion of the Eunuch

(Acts 8:26-39.)

26. But an angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza: the same is desert.

27. And he arose and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship;

28. And he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

29. And the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30. And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readeest?

31. And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him.

32. Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this,

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;

And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,

So he openeth not his mouth:

33. In his humiliation his judgment was taken away:

His generation, who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

34. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other?

35. And Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached unto him Jesus.

36. And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water: what doth hinder me to be baptized?

38. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing.

Conversions of Lydia and the Jailor

(Acts 16.)

13. And on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spake unto the women that were come together.

14. And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul.

15. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there.

25. But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

26. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened; and every one's hands were loosed.

27. And the jailor, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29. And he called for lights and sprang in, and, trembling for fear, fell down before Paul and Silas,

30. And brought them out and said Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31. And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.

32. And they spake the word of the Lord unto him, with all that were in his house.

33. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, immediately.

34. And he brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, having believed in God.

The Twelve Men Baptized at Ephesus

Acts 19: 1-7.)

1. And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper country came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples:

2. And he said unto them, Did ye receive the Holy Spirit when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether the Holy Spirit was given.

3. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism.

4. And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people that they should believe on him that should come after him, that is, on Jesus.

5. And when they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

6. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spake with tongues and prophesied.

7. And they were in all about twelve men.

281

Conversion of Saul

(Acts 22: 1-16.)

1. Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defense which I now make unto you.

2. And when they heard that he spake unto them in the Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,

3. I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are this day.

Christian Unity

4. And I persecuted this Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Damascus to bring them also that were there unto Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.

6. And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8. And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9. And they that were with me beheld indeed the light, but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews that dwelt there,

13. Came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And in that very hour I looked up on him.

14. And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth.

15. For thou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name.

1. Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. (Ps. 133:1.)

2. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.

3. For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink of one Spirit. (1 Cor. 12:12, 13.)

4. Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

5. For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by them that are of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

6. Now this I mean, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

7. Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized into the name of Paul? (1 Cor. 1:10-13.)

8. I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were called,

9. With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

10. Giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

11. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling;

12. One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

13. One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all. (Eph. 4:1-6.)

14. Neither for these only do I pray, but for them also that believe on me through their word;

15. That they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the world may believe that thou didst send me. (John 17:20, 21.)

16. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and they shall become one flock, one shepherd. (John 10:16.)

283

Giving

1. Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I gave order to the churches of Galatia, so also do ye.

2. Upon the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. (1 Cor. 16:1, 2.)

3. Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart: not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. (2 Cor. 9:7.)

4. And he looked up, and saw the rich men that were casting their gifts into the treasury.

5. And he saw a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, This poor widow cast in more than they all:

6. For all these did of their superfluity cast in unto the gifts; but she of her want did cast in all the living that she had. (Luke 21:1-4.)

7. Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee?

8. In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob me, even this whole nation.

9. Bring ye the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith Jehovah of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. (Mal. 3:8-10.)

10. Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again. (Luke 6:38.)

11. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life. (John 3:16.)

12. Christ also loved the church, and gave himself up for it. (Eph. 5:25.)

284

The Law Abrogated

1. Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth?

2. For the woman that hath a husband is bound by the law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband.

3. So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man.

4. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God.

5. For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6. But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter. (Rom. 7:1-7.)

7. But if the ministration of death, written, and engraven on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face, which glory was passing away; how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit be with glory?

8. For if the ministration of condemnation hath glory, much rather doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

9. For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth.

10. For if that which passeth away was with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

11. Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, and are not as Moses, who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly on the end of that which was passing away.

12. But their minds were hardened: for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ.

13. But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. But whensoever it shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. (2 Cor. 3:7-16.)

14. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is become guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. (Jas. 2:10-12.)

15. Ye are severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are fallen away from grace. (Gal. 5:4.)

The Law Abrogated

1. Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. (Gal. 2:16.)

2. For I through the law died unto the law, that I might live unto God.

3. I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.

4. I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought. (Gal. 2:19-21.)

5. For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them.

6. Now that no man is justified by the law before God, is evident: for, The righteous shall live by faith; and the law is not of faith; but, He that doeth them shall live in them.

7. Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree. (Gal. 3:10-13.)

8. What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.

9. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law.

10. But the scripture shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

11. But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

12. So that the law is become our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor.

13. For ye are all sons of God, through faith in Christ Jesus.

14. For as many of you as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ. (Gal. 3:19-27.)

The Transfiguration

1. Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart.

2. And he was transfigured before them; and his face did shine as the sun, and his garments became white as the light.

3. And behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elijah talking with him.

4. And Peter answered, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, I will make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

5. While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7. And Jesus came and touched them and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8. And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, save Jesus only. (Matt. 17: 1-8.)

Blessed Is the Man

1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers:

2. But his delight is in the law of Jehovah; and on his law doth he meditate day and night.

3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also doth not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

4. The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5. Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6. For Jehovah knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the wicked shall perish. (Ps. 1.)

Remember thy Creator

1. Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2. Before the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;

3. In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows shall be darkened, and the doors shall be shut in the street;

4. When the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

5. Yea, they shall be afraid of that which is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond-tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goeth to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets:

6. Before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern,

7. And the dust returneth to the earth as it was, and the spirit returneth unto God who gave it.

8. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher; all is vanity.

9. And further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he pondered, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10. The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, even words of truth.

11. The words of the wise are as goads; and as nails well fastened are the words of the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12. And furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13. This is the end of the matter; all hath been heard: Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.

14. For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil (Eccl. 12).

Lord, I want to be a Christian	171
Lord Jesus, I long.....	191
Lord, send me.....	34
Love divine	220
Love! lifted me.....	63
Love's wonderful door..	43

M

Make Christ King.....	169
Make Christ your King	142
Manoah	252
Many are anxiously.....	97
Master, the tempest is raging	167
Meet mother in the skies	143
'Mid the storms of doubt	163
More like the Master....	156
More love to Thee.....	240
More precious to me....	109
Must Jesus bear the cross	235
My brother, the life- blood of	77
My country, 'tis of thee	258
My faith looks up to Thee	208
My Father knows.....	147
My hope is built.....	234
My love has been won	109
My path may be lonely	110
My Saviour's love.....	121
My trust is in my Sav- iour	98

N

Naught have I forgotten	8
Nearer, my God, to Thee	210
No compromise	61
Nothing can be greater	59
Now He is mine.....	129
Now the day is over....	214

O

O beautiful for spacious	256
O cross of love.....	168
O do some good deed every day	65
O happy day.....	204
O how many.....	136
O I have a message from Jesus	76
O sinner, Christ was slain	102
O that will be glory....	16
O the joy to meet my Saviour	57
O think of the home....	202

O Thou who dost care for my soul.....	119
O what a wonderful day	124
O youth, with life before you	142
O'er Judah's plain.....	92
Oh, say, can you see....	257
Olive's brow	254
On a hill far away.....	4
On a wonderful page....	22
On Jordan's stormy banks I stand.....	172
On the homeward way..	9
On the mountain-top....	50
On this holy Lord's Day	247
Once I was sad.....	126
One of God's days.....	25
Only a shadow between	62
Only a sinner.....	8
Only trust Him.....	203
Onward, Christian sol- diers	193
Onward, forward.....	144
Our Father who art.....	260
Out in the desert one sheep	31

Saved by the blood.....	165
Saved, saved	125
Saviour, lead me lest I stray	75
Saviour, like a shepherd	51
Saviour, more than life	215
Servant of all.....	166
Shall we gather at the river?	217
Silent night, holy night..	227
Since I'm in Christ.....	79
Since Jesus came into my heart	15
Sing the wondrous love	10
Softly now the light of day	213
Somebody came.....	91
Some day may be too late	181
Some day you say.....	181
Some one is needing a smile	83
Some one is watching your light	33
Sometimes in sorrow we travel	17
Sometimes when I meet great	37

Sons of God.....	116
Soul astray in darkness	180
Sowing in the morning	54
Standing on the prom- ises	85
Sun of my soul.....	207
Sunshine in the soul....	114
Sweet are the promises	18
Sweet by and by.....	209
Sweet peace, the gift of God's love	23

T

Take me as I am.....	184
Take the name of Jesus	226
Tell it wherever you go	95
That dreadful night....	252
That is all.....	37
That is the love for me..	138
The banner of the cross	27
The beautiful gates of gold	52
The church by the side of the road	24
The church in the wild- wood	107
The city of dreams.....	38
The foundation of God standeth sure	3
The great change.....	79
The great Physician....	145
The handwriting on the wall	146
The home over there....	202
The last mile of the way	58
The Lord God omnipo- tent reigneth	164
The Lord's prayer.....	260
The love that sought....	138
The old Book and the old faith	163

The story of Jesus.....	86
The touch of His hand on mine	69
The victory may depend on you	130
The way of the cross leads home	178
The word of God shall stand	140
There are days so dark	69
There are lonely hearts	29
There are many hearts waiting	36
There are those around watching	46
There comes to my heart one	23
There is a fountain....	192
There is a place to Christians dear ..	242
There is sunshine in my soul	114
There shall be showers of blessing	89
There's a call that comes to	34
There's a church in the valley	107
There's a city of dreams	38
There's a great day com- ing	186
